The Ashland Union.

ASHLAND ::::: OCT 7, 1863.

Stand Firm ! Falter not an Instant!

Buy your Groceries of JACOBS &

THE WELDEN HOUSE -While at Mansfield on Saturday last to attend the great Vallandigham and Peace Convention, we were among the fortunate ones in scouring quarters

List of Petit and Grand Jurrors for the per term, 1863, of the Court of Common as of Ashland county, Ohio ; PETIT JURORS.

John Irwin, Jackson Township; Mjah Fast, "
Jacob Kinney, Mohican Zebulon Metcalf, "Nicholas Wireman, " Jonathan Doty, Montgomery." Samuel Gibson, Vermillion William Davis, Erra Brandebery, Troy, ph Coleman, Orange, John Porter, Ruggles

Wm Patterson, Perry, GRAND JURORS. Nicholas Plank, Montgomery; George Riddle Samuel D Burns, Milton Nelson, Robert Nelson, Milton; David Sturgen, Vermillion : Kenvine Moffit, " Samuel Craig, " Wm W Strayer, Perry; Samuel Wallace, Orange; Daniel Folk, Troy; Philip Shanbaugh, Green; Jacob Gam, Mohican; J C Bol's, Jackson; John Keener. "

Vermillion Institute.

he closed he was treated with courtesy and re with hisses from the republican side of the allowance we are accustomed to bestow on those who are wanting in brains to appreciate their own contemptible meanness. VINDEX.

Remember.

That every vote cast for Brough will be a vote for civil war, fresh drafts and increased taxes. Union, which his party leaders affirm, has al ready taken place.

Voters, Bear in Mind.

That John Brough comes before the people of Ohio asking their support for one of the highest official positions within their gift, upon the infamous proposition of that old fanatic

"The Union as it was, and the Constitution as it is, God forbid it! That may be abolition Voters of Ashland, are you prepared to endorse that traitorous sentiment by voting for Brough for Governor of Ohio? We cannot believe so.

you do not like to have the negroes come North and throw you out of employment, you can move to the South and take the place that the negro has left! What, kind advice this is to the laborer, to be sure. He may go South as a substitute for the negro slave!

The Ashland Times

conscience shall dietate,

WHO DIVIDED THE UNION? The answer must be, the South, undoubtedly, if we look no farther back than the sevat the Welden. This House, in all the escentials to the comfort and convenience of the travelling public, is second to none in the city, and it affords us lively gratification to bear our testimony to the courteous and affable deportment of its young and popular proprietor, Mr. Figure 1. Belling 1. Belling 1. Belling 2. Belling 3. Belling influential classes in the Southern States that party repudiate. Mansfield make the Welden a stopping place, and they will soon come to feel, as we now do, that no newspaper notice can do it justice, in vain. No change of party names, no at- want to entirely destroy the government our for Peace, for Liberty, for Law, cast your baltempt to restrict political discussions within fathers formed. Thus do they revere our lot for C. L. Vallandigham, and entreat the period since Mr. Lincoln's election, can country. The infamous and bloody Robes- your neighbor to do so. blind the people to the broad fact that if there pierre, under the garb of a pretended desire had been no sectional Republican party there would have been no war. This fact stands up committed crimes that make humanity shudand no artifice can obscure it.

Mansfield make the Welden a stopping place, and they will soon come to feel, as we now do, the "irrepressible conflict," and John the Sunny South; hundreds of thousands of the Sunny South; hundreds of the Sunn who applies the match.

tional bitterness which preceded the severing of political ties. It is noterious to all the world follow after him. In brief, what they have that it was the abolitionists that sowed the done for our country, has been to change its seeds of this alienation, that fomented this freedom into a despotism, to overturn its conbitterness. Slavery was the sore and sensi- stitution and set aside its laws, to dissolve it tive spot on the social body of the South, into sections and fragments and to drench it and the rough handed abolitionssts kept rub-bing it. The greater the irritation they caused, its bravest and noblest men. The closing exercises of this popular Instidution c.use off on Tuesday and Wednesday of that week The attendance during the last
sive evidence in these times of the successful
sive evidence in these times of the successful management, both on the part of officers and management of the Cumbello law the that at Chekamanga, management of the church of the management of the bound of our breath arm of the church of the bound of our breath arm of the bound of our breath arm of the bound of our breath arm of the chu the State as a linguist, and Professor Simpson ganized very much like our pelitical institustands No. 1., in the mathamatical department.

They all had their several state asso saved the lives of the thirty or forty thousand rote for a party that can only be upheld by the land and Kentucky, from necessity as well as til slavery is abolished," says Lincoln; tear it ter extent than in Vermillion Institute. The tered the Methedist church, as Satan, the au to remain exposed to the dangers of the battle loved ones that they may obtain annual exhibition of the Philo Society was the Philo Society was the rot die ord, entered Eden, presently that field and the still greater dangers of the pester and since our held on Thesday evening, and furnished a litfield and the still greater dangers of the ps.

field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greater dangers of the ps.
field and the still greate The question-Was the President justifiable that in all these divisions it was the South slaughtered and our forces were driven to the in suspending the writ of hahe s corpus in that seceded, but it is also true that the ques- capitol. The same men that gave Pope the the loyal States? Was discussed by Mr. H | tions on which they divided were thrust into command, placed at the head of the army of S. Snodgrass on the affirmative and Mr. M. J. the several conventions by the abolitionists. the Potomac the Butcher Burnside. He led Hamilton on the negative The discussion was able and creditable to both. Though Mr. Snodgrass was bitter and sarcastic, yet when suggests, or that the seceders were hurried in agogues, or that the seceders were hurried in the administration trifled with the lives of cur. It cannot be pretended that this separation of the bottlers slaughter at Fredericksburg some them—let their riotous propensities get the better of the bottlers of the bottlers of them—let them remember that their property thirty thousand more brave men. Thus has say aluable to them as that of Democrats—agogues, or that the seceders were hurried in the administration trifled with the lives of cur. to acting against their deliberate judgment - soldiers, and after all this slaughter and the he closed he was treated with courtesy and respect, by those differing with him in sentiment. Twas very different when Mr. Hamilton clesed his speech. Though he made no personal allusion whatever; though it was admitted by all that he discussed the question mitted by all that he discussed the question common cause. You may say, to be sure. fairly, yet when he sat down, he was greeted common cause You may say, to be sure, their friends and loved ones at home saved out liberty! If Abolitionists choose to raise the that the South was insane on the subject of from danger and forever content with the well whirlwind, they must bide the consequence. house. And be it said to their shan.e, some slavery; but that is merely a different way of earned laurels they have won. shings, styling shemselves ladies gave relief to saying that their opinion on that subject dif. So then the abolition motto at the head of fered from yours. Your attempt to domineer this article but shows the desperate lying of not be trampled spon. It is a threat which These hissing quadrupods, will perhaps be over their opinions, and to overturn their so-the party. "God" they repudiate; "our men worthy of the birthright of freedom will country" they have destroyed, and our solunderstand! Those who are not, will probably of the use they would probably make of it. And our honest rail-splitter at Washington s still swinging the enormous abolitio : beetle as well as for confirming the dissolution of the scam. When, by and by the Democrats ren-speech lately made by the Rev. Colonel Moo dy at Viena, Clinton county, in this State; "Colonel Moody appealed to the vast crowd to rally around the flag, as did our sires of '76 -all the dearer for its reverses. He said that and traiter to the Union, Thad Stephens. It the reverses at Chattanooga would increase Bround's many traiter to the Union, Thad Stephens. Brough's vote ten thousand in Ohio. That the patriotism of the people would be aroused by the perils of the hour, and the watchword and reply would be that of the old Romans: 'Not that I love Democracy less, but my country more." Rebel victories increases Brough's vote ten thousand! This explains, then, why Rosecran's army was weakened by having so large a body of soldiers, who should have been with it, LINCOLN'S KINDNESS TO THE LABORING thrown into the free States. A defeat was MEN.—Every white laboring man ought to wanted in order to help Brough, and the reb-put up conspicuously in his dwelling the fol-We thank the Reverend Colonel for his au-"Said Mr. Lincoln, in his last message to mission that rebel defea's cause Abolition vic-We thank the Reverend Colonel for his ad-Congress; 'If they,' the negroes, 'stay in their old places, they jostle no white laborers; if they leave their old places, they leave them open to white laborers."

That is as much as to say to the whites, if

Sympathy:

That in the arrest and barishment of C. L. the South and make them the equals of the VALLANDIGHAM, your right as a free citizen white men of Ohio, for the patriotic and very of Ohio was stricken down, and that your vote, liberal consideration of $125, per month, and if cast for him, is in vindication of your own cast of the good of the cause. In giving his services to that cause and for the consideration above named, Mr. BARBER lost a leg, and American oitizenrhip to go unrebuked, what upon that the Editor of the Times has the braurance have you that you will not be the zen impudence to ask the white men of Ashassurance have you that you will not be the land county, whom this man Barber labored to lower to the position of plantation negroes, then answer through the ballot box as your to vote for him for Clerk of their Court.— which will be addressed by Will they do it? M'CARTY & CAMPBELL, cmocrats.

"GOD, OUR COUNTRY, & OUR SOLDIERS."

The above motto was strung across the eral ordinances of secession passed by their street on the day of the Republican meeting state conventions. But what led to such a in Ashland. Let us see whether the past hisstate of public feeling in the South that the tory or present practice of the leaders of that passage of these ordinances of secession be-came possible? This question goes to the lingame said that the God that is usually worroot of the subject, and a correct answer to shipped, and the Bible that Christians use are littien destrine prevals, how am I to support Republic, they took advantage of the morbid it must fix the ultimate responsibility for dis-solution on the abolitionists. True, there have Bible and an anti-slavery God." It is a notolong been demagogues in the South who con- rious fact that Wendell Phillips, Garrison, sidered dissolution desirable. But who gave Wade, Gerrit Smith, and many others of the to these demagogues their power? who supparty are open and avowed infidels. So it is plied them with arguments? who enabled but blashphemy for these infidel scoundrels to hem to convince a majority of the active and thus use the name of the GOD they and their place for a nigger.

of the ladder by which southern demagogues climed to their ascendency. He who digs under my house, deposites the gunpowder, and sword. They claim to be for the Union when lays the train, is as wicked as the incendiary it is well known they have distroyed it. They was promptly followed.

They claim to be for the Union when cornege and desolation you will vote with states, and that advice was promptly followed.

They complete the many followed. They complete the many followed. They complete the many followed. They complete the many followed. They complete the many followed. They complete the many followed. They complete the many followed. They complete the many followed. They complete the many followed. They complete the many followed. ays the train, is as wicked as the incendiary who applies the match.

The evasive ingenuity by which the abolition is seek to escape this responsibility is all tionists seek to escape this responsibility is all of government and while we know that they and give your influence and vote for Country, in bold relief, like the Alps against the sky, der at the recital, and drenched a nation in blood. This is one of the experiences of his-The Union was not held together by merely tory; and now following this, with a reign of political bonds, nor was it dissolved all at once terror that surpasses in its enormity in deby merely political action. The real dissolu-tion was in the alienation of feeling and sec-French revolution, we find Abraham Lincoln the more the object of their torture winced, But the last part of the inscription pretends the better they seemed pleased. Much of the to be a compliment for our soldiers. What zest of such books as Mrs. Stowe's "Uncle are they doing for their benefit or their peace Tom's Cabin" (a book which was high-toned and safety? By means of the Emancipation, and respectable compared with the great mass | Confiscation and other acts and proclamations of abolition libels and pasquinades), consisted they succeeded in arousing the entire people seive their insults with the same degree of the Union. You may say, again, that this diers" they have murdered. Choose ye beget comprehension by experience—the naceswas only a pretext; but it still remains true tween Peace and good will among men or for sary teacher of fools - Crisis. that it was the abolitionists who gave them perpetual war and eternal hate. this pretext in the face of repeated warnings

Count the Cost.

John Brough in a public speech has deand delivering his sturdiest blows on the same clared to the people of Ohio that the war must wedge by which the states were separated - be prosecuted until slavery is abolished; and The Union is as yet only a partially cleft log; if he is elected Governor he will use all the

> Who was it that in his place in the Congress of the United States, moved to insert a chause in a bill to increase the pay of race, and the principles of self government. private soldiers to sixteen dollars per month? Hon. C. L. Vallandigham, Democratic candidate for Governor of Chio.

Who was it that compelled soldiers to pay full fare over the Railroad of which he is President, when all other roads in the State carried them for two thirds the regular fare? John Brough, Abolition Republican candidate for Governor of Ohio. Who was it makes use of these sentences "I am a Democrat-for Constitution, for Law, Hon. C. L. Vallandigham.

The Union-loving Democracy of

MONDAY EVE. OCTOBER 12th,

member.

And let the friends of the soldiers remember, that John Brough and the leading men of the party running him for office, have openly, publicle and assachusetts was the one of the party running him for office, have openly, publicle and the leading men of the party in power are wholly recompeted that the party in power are wholly recompeted the party in power are wholly recompeted the party in power are wholly recompeted the party recompeted that the party in power are wholly recompeted th nooga, that it would be better that all our ar- ment to force fourteen slave-negro States to mies in the fild were defeated and utterly an- adopt her notions of negroes. These States nihilated than that the Union party should simply murder their negroes in the vain effortion ;-and a Reverend blood-letting saint and man; but could they force their lunavies on his speeches and letters, that the defeat and renders society itself impossible. The States. slaughter of our gallant soldiers at Chatanoo threatened by such a monstrous lunacy, secego would be as good as ten thousand votes for ded, that is, each State individually, and of

Brough. in a perception of the sting they would inflict of the South to a frenzy that induced them to on southern sensitiveness. It was like the fight with a pravery and desperation that has bear our brave soldiers. At the instigation of Massachusetts. &c. In view of this state of pleasure felt by a mischievous boy who sits scarce peen equalled in the history of the these Abolition leaders, thousands of the things, how apparent the wisdom of Mr. Jef. on a shed and shakes a red flag at a mad bull. | world. They demand perpetual war. They soldiers in the army of the Cumberland have ferson's tacties. Suppose the opposition to the The examination of the several classes ciations, which were represented in a general straining and rowhere is the rough mode of training and rowhere is the several states are rep training and rowhere is the several states are reptraining and rowhere is the several state are reptraining and rowhere represented in a general serifice of their brave comrades? Can the several state are reptraining and rowhere is the several state are reptraining and rowhere represented in a general serifice of their brave comrades? Can the several state are reptraining and rowhere represented in a general state are reptraining and rowhere represented in the rowhere represented in a general state are reptraining and rowhere represented in the rowhere represented in t

Will the Abolitionists Commence Violence at the Polls?

It will be as peaceful an election as any ever held. If they contemplate violence-or if they let their riotous propensities get the better of Another Draft to be Made. Is this a "threat?" Yes it is a threat to keep the peace! It is a threat that Democrats will Voters. member.

The Union is as yet only a partially cleft log; if the alcolition wedge were knocked out the sides would spring together and leave only a seam. When, by and by the Democrats real der this service, let the abolitionists look out that their fingers are not in the cleft.

The Rev. Mr. Moody—The Defeat of Rosecrans Worth 10,000 Votes to Brough.

In the Times of Monday afternoon there is a sketch, prebably written by the Parson himself, giving a highly colored account of a speech lately made by the Bev. Colonel Moody—The Beet and Governoor he will use all the mighty energies of the State for the accomplishment of that object. Before any one cast the same in the field should be defeated and surface, sone and fathers from the store them to their families and homes,—one wote may add fresh victims to the bloody Molecular the slaves by war. There were at the commencement of the rebelion 4,000,000 have been in the South. Of these 300,000 have been emancipated—leaving 3,700,000 yet to be set free. The liberation of these 300,000 negrows has cost the country the lives of 750,000 white men by battle and disease, and at a low speech lately made by the Rev. Colonel Mooder than the state for the accomplishment of that object. Before any one cast the commission of the state for the accomplishment of that object. Before any one cast the commoderation of the scame field should be defeated and store them to their families and homes,—one vote may add fresh victims to the bloody Molecular the slaves by war. There were at the commencement of the rebelion 4,000,000 slaves in the South of Abolition, and wring tears and groans of anguish from widowed mothers and or phaned children,—one vote may decide the contest between Peace and War in Ohio,—one vote may decide the contest between Peace and War in Ohio,—one vall may recall friends, brothers, sons and fathers from the country the best of the bloody Molecular the slaves of Abolition, and wring tears and groans of anguish from widowed mothers and or phaned children,—one vote may decide th estimate, double that number in maimed and their toil, -one vote may decide the destiny crippled for life, and 3,000,000,000 in money. Come, you ardent admirers of Brough and his the return of your friends to their families think that a fight would be awful. Without a and homes, for the boon of liberty bequeathed little blood letting this Union will not, in ma us by our fathers, for the supremacy of your estimation, be worth a rush.

[From the New L shin Patriot, of Sept. 25.]
Jefferson and Jackson Democrats. On last Saturday, at Alliance, Jack Brough said that he and Dave Tod were the Jefferson and Jackson Democrats, and that the so-called Democratic party had abandoned the principles of its immortal founders. For the prin- at the coming election, should look up their ciples of Jefferson, we refer to his first Inau- naturalization papers, and bring them alon. gural Address. It will be found that every to the polls. These who have not received principle there laid down is diametrically op- their final ones, should get them immediately, and the Union maintained by the mere coer-Who was it that recently made use of these sive powers confided to the General Governsentences: "I do not wish to see the Union ment. Its foundation must be laid in the af- Don't lose your vote by not having your pa-The Ashland Times of this week attemps to manufacture sympathy for Capt. Barber, because he is an abolitionist, and engaged in the reason that the first gun fired upon Fort character. If such a struggle is over begun, Voters, Remember, because he is an abolitionist, and engaged in the reason that the first gun fired upon Fort character If such a struggle is over begun, this abolition was to liberate the negroes of Sumpter relieved us from the thradom of and the citizens of one section of the country Gold Medal Salaratus are authorized to give years, 5 menths and 11 days. their customers the privilege of using one other in doubtful conflict, let the battle result as it may, there will be an end to the Union, and with it an end to the hopes of freemen.—

The victory of the victors would not secure to them the blessings of liberty. It would not secure to them the blessings of liberty. It would not secure to the blessings of liberty. It would not secure to the blessings of liberty. It would not secure the privilege of using one their customers the privilege of using one the pri are ever arrayed in arms against those of an their customers the privilege of using one

"My God, how can I vote for Brough? I have fought upon four hattle fields; I have returned home with a shattered constitution, and now I am discharged to give place to this alamned nigger coachman from Louisiana, just because he underbids me. If Brough's Abo-This was the remark made by a poor frish coachman in Cincinnati when asked to support Brough while smarting with indignation because he had been discharged to make a place for a nigger.

Let it be Rementable Remarks and reduce them to mere provinces, as originally coacomplated by the leading Federal described as the first for the incendiary recommendations which could not have been united significant to because he had been discharged to make a place for a nigger.

Let it be Rementable Remember bered,

That it is the Abolitionists, the advocates of a Higher law, the men who toll bells over the execution of old John Brown, who endorse Helper's Impending Crisis, who declare that "without a little blood-letting the Union would not have worth a rush," and that the Union as the worth a rush," and that the Union as the content of the Remarks of the only interest of the County of Ablaginal Brown, which is the provinces, as originally coacomplated by the Abolitionists of the North. This was fount, there are added in them: in forth the count, were added in them: in fertile the count, were added in them: in them the whole them to never have a few on the east and reduce them to mere provinces, as originally coacomplated by the Abolitionists of the North. This was for the sent and earlier the south count of the Vinion the County of Ablagina Brown, which the south was a fightly acceptable to the count, were added in them: in the north the south count of the North Carolina could the South could the S excitement and apprehension of the popular sylvania and especially Virginia, resigned, went home, entered the State Legislatures, and made these the popular foci for an opposition that two years later overwhelmed the heartily desire an honerable and patriotic concentralists, and, as Mr. Jefferson expressed it, clusion of this horrible war. Let us ask such restored the government to the "republican if they do not think it time that new men track." This is a government of the States, should be called into power, and new ideas and whenever administered otherwise, it is, prevail in the conduct and purpose of the war? for the time being, revolutionized, and the It must be evident to every reflecting mind, only possible way to restore it to its true posi- that the party in power are wholly racompeicly and repeatedly avowed themselves the State; but, one by one, she has corrupted and diable. Turn them out. Give us new men. cornages, &c. bitter enemy of the soldier. Brough declared perverted seventeen other States, and with Let us have new ideas. This we must accomin a speech made since the disasters at Chatta- their aid boldly-usurps the common govern- plish speedily or all is lost.

itself, fell back on the great law of self-pres This is the love these canting hypocrites ervation, and refused to be destroyed to please

If they do not, there will be no disturbance. THE MASK THROWN OFF

Six hundred thousand more To swell the purple flood of gore.

Ohio. It was but a subterfuge of the Abolitionists to effect our State election. Failing tion State ticket, the mask is thrown off and the designs of the Administration are fully developed by the announcement that another made. The question which the people now have to decide is, Brough and a heavy draft in Ohio; or Vallandigham and no draft!

FATHERS, SONS, BROTH-

ERS,

The Abolitionists of Ashland County have emancipation policy, figure up the cost in life and treasure to liberate the remaining 3,750,00 or the black man. In short, one vote may forey from Washington addressed to the Governor slaves, and see if the country can afford to pay it.

Z. CHANCLER.

And yet the abolition Moloch cries for BLOOD! MORE BOOD!

To Naturalized Citizens

All Naturalized Citizens, who wish to vote

posite to the doctrines of Brough and Tod.

Now read the following passage from Jackfor the Union, for Liberty," and "Devoted to the Union from the beginning, I will not desert it now in this the hour of its sorest trial!"

Now read the following passage from Jackson place of residence, should go or send for them come to being Jackson Democrats:

"But the Constitution can not be preserved" time. Recollect former troubles on this actime. Recollect former troubles on this acount , and do not allow them to occur a gain of these abolition disorganizers, and widening the beach between the North and South.

THE ROAD TO PEACE AND THURLOW WEED'S TESTIMO-NY LET EVERY VOTER IN

Are the people of Ashland prepared to thus strengthen the hands of the open and avowed enemies of our institutions. We feel assured that they are not, and that on next Tuesday they will do their part in hurling from the place of their usurped power these assassins of constitutional liberty. constitutional liberty.

We believe that the Republican masses

Do Not Forget

fail in carrying Ohio at the the October elec- to make them live out the life of the white That Mr. VALLANDIGHAM wrote to the New York Times, (March 8, 1863) correcting the leader in the Abolition party, declared through the South, they would destroy both races, and statement of the Times' reporter that Mr. Vallandigham had counselled resistance to the laws. Mr. V. told that paper most unequivocally that he was for obedience to all laws, "forcible resistance to nope. He said further "The ballot box, and not the cartridge box, is the instrument for reform and revolution." There will be no "civil war on our side of says Lincoln; tear it

last issue—the ladies will have a saloon, where all kinds of the best catables can be had, in the large room formerly occupied by Wick & Bushnell as a store room. This arrangement will last through the three days of the County Fair. It is enough to insure it a big run of custom when it is known that the entire proceeds will be devoted to the benefit of our brave soldiers. Everybody is requested to

THE LATE FIRE. - In our late issue we gave some particulars concerning the late confla-gration of Ayer's celebrated Medical Laboratory, located in this city. From all the int formation we have since been able to gather. we are of opinion that their loss will amounto some $75,000 or $80,000 although no exact to effect what they sought by the use of this estimate has yet been reached. Notwithstanunscrupulous trick, the election of the Aboli- ding this great loss, including the partial destruction of the three upper stories of the block they occupy, filled with complicated machine-ry, costly stock, manufacturing and printing material, the firm have, with that indomitable draft of 600,000 men is to be immediately energy which characterizes all their operations, already effected arrangements by which the building will, in two weeks, be so far repaired that they will resume business to a considerable extent. In the meantime, they have converted the large church owned by them, corner of Merrimack and Central Streets. into a manufactory and office, where their operations are already in progress, and we pre-sume their patrons, (and their name is "legion,") will hardly be at all embarrassed by

. We heard the opinion expressed by our citwe heard the opinion expressed by our citizens, during the progress of the fire, that it would probably cause the removal of this characteristic establishment to some more central locality, like Philadelphia or New York. It was even proposed to petition the Messrs, Ayes against such a step, which would prove a serious loss to Lowell; but we are glad to see that present indications clearly denote their intention to remain with us, where their business relations, with the largest half of mankind, have commenced and grown up - Vox

The Urbana Lufon, a paper independent in politics and opposed to the election of Val-lendigham, in sommenting on those who "cry out in subdued exultation, 'a corperhead shot' one vote less for Vallandigham"—says that "a man who could do this is a murderer in heart, and is only restrained from external crime by fear of the law, or

"By fear o'hell, that hangman's whip, To haud the wretch in or ler."

Lost.—A gold bended chain on the streets of Ashland about the 15th of this month, be-

MARRIED. On the 1st day of October, 1863, al'the resi of Joseph Wicks. by Jacob Fast, Esq., Mr. William McFapden and Miss Seyena C. Mitchelson, all of Ashland county, Ohio.

The victory of the victors would not secure to them the blessings of liberty. It would avenge their wrongs, but they would themselves share in the common ruin."

How much preservation of the Union by war is there in that? And yet Tod and Brough pretend that the men who have gone ut of the Democratic party are the only true

Wood, we would say to all such that now is an excellent time to bring it in.

Word. It is a great deal better than sods to use with cream tartar. Try it. Most of the Most of the Lutheran Church, she died as she had lived in the Christian faith, with a firm assurance of a blissful immortality. Her remains were followed by a large circle of relatives and friends to the Cemetry 2 miles North west of Orange, a which place the fune all services were fon fueled in the Church by Rev. A. H. Myers of the Lutheran church, she died as she had lived in the Christian faith, with a firm assurance of a blissful immortality. Her remains were followed by a large circle of relatives and friends to the Cemetry 2 miles North west of Orange, a whood, we would say to all such that now is an excellent time to bring it in.

Church. Tix., Ph 11e 25v.

Ashhland, O., Jan. 12, 1863.

GUARDIAN'D NOTICE.

the following pungent and truthful words:

"The chief architects of rebellion, before it broke out, were aided in their infernal designs to the Aleksian of the south the Aleksian of the State of the South the State of the State of the South the State of the State of the South the State of the State of the South the State of the State of the South the third is two years from the day of sale to cured by mortgage on the premises sold, an defered payments to bear interest at the rate per centum per annum payable amounty.

JACOB MORR, ga

October 7th, 1863—nolb4w.

U. S. REVENUE TAX NOTICE

cornages, &c.

Therefore all persons liable to the payme such duties and tax, in Ashland county and of Ohio, are hereby notified that the same have come due, and pays ble, and that I will receive same at my office, until the 25th of October, It All persons who shall neglect to pay the dand taxes so assessed, within said time, must the penalty according to law. Only United Suppose received.

W. B. PARMELY. Dep't Collector 5 Division of the 14 District Revenue Stamps for sale at my office.

Ashland, October Sth, 1863-no18ef-ASHLAND COUNTY PROBATE COURT NOTICE.

The following Executors. Administrators a Guardi as have filed in the Probate Court of a land county, their accounts for settlement, to we Partial Acc't of D. C. Kean and Elizabeth Brub Ker, Executor of George Brub ker, dec'd. Renjamine G. Shrock Execute of Jesse Callehan, dec'd. Christian, Willer and Isan Myers, dec'd. James B. Smith Adm'r of Re-becca Whiteman, doe'd.

J. P. Childs Adm'r of John Likes. dec'd. George Philipott Adm'r of Joseph De Moss, dee'd. Peter Deshong Adm'r of Murtha Bender, dee'd. John Herr Adm'r of Henry Shal-A. II. Paxton Adm'r of Jame

Simeon Drake Admir. of Dowig C. Drake, dec'd. McClure Davis, Adm'r of John brave soldiers. Everybody is requested to something in the way of edibles, so as to make Partial Account of Austin Moherman Guardian of the heirs of Daniel Way, decided the heir of Daniel Way, deci Final Account of John Keen Guardian of M

Long.
Jouathan, Mygrs Guardien of Benjamiu Myers.
Henry W. Rice Guardian of George and Mary Stull.
William W. Scot Guardian of David Ludwig an Idiot.

And the same will be for hearing in said Cour on Monday, the 2d day of Nov. mber. A. D. 1826 at 10 o'clock A. M.

JOHN D. JONES, Probate Judgo. October 7th, 1868.

SELECT SCHOOL.

The undersigned, for a long time connect with education, in the Eastern Cities, response fully announces that he will open a Salect School for the Young Gentlemen and Ladies of Ashland and vicinity, who desire to attend:
Particular attention will be paid to Writing.

both plain and ornamental.

Visiting and Wedding Gards neatly written Parents and guardians, will please call and see specimen of Ornamental Writing at the Miller House, Room No. 4, where further information can be had about the School.

CHARLES PETERSON.

September, 23d, 1863-3y. SHERIFFS SALE. Daniel J. Philips | In Ashland county.

William P. Wright & Commen Pleas, Elizabeth C. Wright.
In pursuance to the command of an order of In pursuance to the command of an order of ale of mortgaged previous dily issued out of the out of Common Pleas of said county, deted the out of Common Pleas of said county, deted the C4th day of September, A. B. 1863, and to me discount I will expose in said at public anction at the toar of the Court House in Ashland on Saturday he 31st day of October, 1863, between the house of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M. of said day the following described lands and tenemants Situate in the township of Montgomery, in the county of Ashland and State of Ohio, and bounded and described as follows, to-wit: Lot number one (1) in Mykranty's first addition to the town of Ashland aforesaid:

Terms of sale cash, appraised at $100.

shland aforesaid:
Terms of sale cash, appraised at $ JAMES McCOOL Sheriff. September 26th , 1853-4s.

LOST. THE undersigned lost six head of Cattle of scribed as follows: One black Stear with wh Lost.—A gold bended chain on the streets of Ashland about the 15th of this month, belonging to Nellie E. Roller. Any person returning the same to the Hardware Store of Roller and Howard will be well rewarded.

W. A. ROLLER.

W. A. ROLLER.

SAMUEL KREILING

Waoster, O., Sept. 26, 1868, - AN ORDINANCE For raising and filling up Lot No. 2, between Main and Second Streets in the incorporated village of

Ashland

At her residence in Ashland, on the evening of he 27th inst., Mas Many Desembero, aged 67 years, 5 menths and 11 days.

Ashland

Sec. 1st. Be it ordained by the Council of said village, that Lot No. — be raised and filled up to prevent stagnant water from collecting on the same.

Sec. 2nd. That the Mayor of said village shall. establish the amount of taising and filling to done on said Lot and report the same to the Con cil.

SEC. 3d. That the expense of raising and filling said lot, shall be ascertained and assessed aforesaid let, and if not paid shall be collected by suit in the name of said village of Ashland according to the Law in such case made and provided.

D. S. SAMPSELL, Mayor.

W. A. ROLLER, Recorder.